

10-Year Membership Award

Presented to

Jade Engineered Plastics, Inc.

in grateful appreciation of the continued backing of the National Association of Manufacturers and its objectives to develop and advocate sound industrial practices and domestic and international policies for furthering the economic and social well-being of the nation and the American people.

A handwritten signature in black ink, which reads "John Engler". The signature is written in a cursive style with a large, sweeping "J" and "E".

John Engler
President and CEO